

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TUESDAY EVENING APRIL 24 1894.

Sun rises to-morrow at 5:16; sun sets 6:44. High water 11:32 a. m. and 11:57 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this week, a variable, a warmer Wednesday; and generally northerly.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY TO WASHINGTON.—Senator Pender introduced a bill in the Senate yesterday designed to furnish employment to the many persons in the District of Columbia. He says he submitted the bill at the request of a citizen of the District. Now that the sub-committee of the House District committee has reported in favor of the route agreed upon by the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company for the extension of that road into the capital city, there is no good reason why the bill should not be reported immediately and passed in order that the road may be built before the summer shall have come and gone. Should this be done, it would be a decided step in the direction of doing about the desideratum proposed by the Kansas Senator, and that, too, in a legitimate business way, and not through the chimerical dream of taxing improved property for the purpose of raising artificial values upon them, as he proposes to do. Should Congress devote but fifteen minutes of the time it is now wasting in fighting off motions or in listening to the expatiations of long-winded members known as posing as time-killers by delivering speeches on the instantaneity of the bill and take up this bill and dispose of it at once, a large number of workmen living within the shadow of the capital who have barely kept the wolf from their doors during the winter months could be put to work, and some, at least, of the distress which is prevailing hereabouts could be alleviated. The old Congressional Globe, when published by the Messrs. Rivers, kept the reflection, "The world is going round too much," under its head line, and that this is true has been made manifestly apparent of late. The simple matter referred to above (an application for permission to extend an electric railroad across a shallow portion of the Potomac river into Washington) has had to pass through a labyrinth of sub-committee and legislation before even a sub-committee could give its sanction, and now a slow serpentine road is before it in the shape of action by the full committee who, for aught we know, some time between now and Monday may agree to report it to Congress. In the meantime the owners of the road are ready and anxious to expend the money in building the extension and workmen are equally as anxious to secure employment in prosecuting the work. It is doubtless such legislation which aids in breeding results for the army of unemployed which is now threatening the peace of the country.

Material for the extension of the road in this city has been placed at its present terminus at the intersection of Cameron and Fayette streets, and the work of opening the square from that point to Payne street will be commenced to-morrow. After the road shall have reached Payne street two routes for the extension to Washington will be considered by the company, and when it shall definitely agree upon one or the other the extension will be prosecuted rapidly. In the meantime it is hoped the necessary Congressional legislation may be enacted speedily.

DISORDER IN THE FIRST WARD.—Late yesterday evening James Dudley, colored, who has instituted a suit for divorce from his wife, went to the house of the latter, on south Fairfax street, in a drunken condition, broke the door and created considerable excitement in the neighborhood. Officer Bettis soon put in his appearance and took him in charge. When arrested Dudley had improvised a slingshot from handkerchief and some gravel. This morning when placed in the dock the prisoner explained his conduct, in substance, as follows: He had reconsidered his determination to procure a divorce and had called upon his wife to effect a reconciliation and also to give the children some money; that his wife, in imitation of Xantippe's conduct toward Socrates, had deluged him with water; that he had not been disorderly, and upon being asked what he was going to do with the slingshot, he replied that he used it to break rock candy. Dudley was fined $5, which he didn't pay, and he will probably become a member of the chain gang.

BREAKING UP HOUSEKEEPING.—A woman named Carrie Travers, while under the influence of liquor yesterday, went to the house of Annie Brantman, in the northeastern section of the city, and played the part of a bull in a china shop by demolishing crockery ware and everything else of a frail nature she could get hold of. The police were called and the frenzied woman taken in charge. An inmate of the house known as Mary Green asked to be arrested also. The officers told her there were no charges against her, but she insisted upon being taken into custody and finally cursed the minions of the law, when it became necessary to take her in charge too. On the way to the lock-up the crockery smasher was determined to make a scene and refused to walk. After considerable trouble she was carried bodily through the street and finally landed in the station house. This morning they both defiantly pleaded guilty, and the Mayor fined the Travers woman $20 and her companion $250.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presided. The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Carrie Travers and Mary Green, arrested by Officers Bettis, Hayes and Ferguson the first named for destroying furniture and for drunken and disorderly conduct, and the latter for using unbecoming language on the street, were fined $20 and $250 respectively.

James Dudley, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis for drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

A young man, arrested by Officers Travers and Young for an assault, was fined $250.

John Wilson, colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Brenner charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

A young man, charged with fighting, was fined $250.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. Six prisoners and two lodgers were at the station house.

Fish.—Since yesterday about 100,000 herring and 1000 shad have arrived at Flattown. Herring sold at from $1.00 to $2.00 per thousand and shad at from $1.00 to $1.50 per hundred.

NATIONAL IDEAL OPERA COMPANY.

The National Ideal Opera Company, a troupe of Washington singers and actors, will give a performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's opera comique "Mikado," at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, May 15th. This company is under the management of Mr. L. F. Randolph, who sang the role of Marco Palmieri in the late performances of Goucouiers. Mr. E. B. Fox, who sang the part of Giuseppe, is also in the cast. The role of "Pooch Bah" being especially suited to him, both musically and dramatically. The "Three Little Maids" will be assumed by Misses Alice Judson, as "Yum Yum," Florence Gregg, as "Pitt-Sing," and Marie Mayer, as "Peep Bo." Miss Gregg will be remembered as a former Alexandrian, a young lady with a sweet mezzo voice and graceful presence. Miss Mayer is a resident of this city and bids fair to be its leading alto. "Katisha" will be assumed by Mrs. Emma Green. "Ko-Ko" the Lord High Executioner, will be assumed by Mr. Hubbard T. Smith. Mr. Charles D. Moore, whose work in several performances of the cantata "Escher, the Beautiful Queen," is pleasantly remembered here, will sing the role of "The Mikado." "Pish-Tush" will be represented by Mr. Ransom Polard. The music will be under the capable direction of Mr. Donald B. MacLeod. A chorus of thirty singers, selected from the leading church choirs of Washington, complete the company, together with an orchestra of ten pieces. Special scenery is being painted and new costumes made for this production.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone of the new court house to be built at Leesburg was laid to-day with imposing ceremonies and in the presence of a large concourse of people from that town and adjoining country, many from this city being present. This morning Old Dominion Commandery, Knight Templars, in full uniform and escorted by the Alexandria Drum Corps and members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge and Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons left here on a special train for Leesburg. They were accompanied by a number of ladies. On their arrival at Leesburg they were met at the depot by a delegation of Olive Branch Lodge of that place and escorted to the center of the town where they were most hospitably received and entertained. They were given a prominent place in the procession which paraded the principal streets of the town. The corner stone was laid by Mann Page, Grand Master of Masons of the State. Grand Secretary William B. Isaacs, Grand Treasurer J. V. Edgwood, Grand Senior Warden A. R. Courtney, Grand Tyler W. C. Wilkinson, and Grand Pursuivant Junius A. Cosby, were also present. The oration was delivered by Judge R. T. W. Duke, Jr., of Charlottesville, who is Grand Senior Deacon of the Grand Lodge of Virginia.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Robert Thomas and Mr. John Critcher, Jr., left for Beth county to-day on professional business. Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Woodson, of Franklin, are visiting friends in this city.

Mr. W. N. McVeigh left here to-day for Richmond.

Mr. C. W. O'Meara is quite sick at his home on south Royal street.

Mr. W. W. Adam is quite ill, he having suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. J. A. Dixon left here this evening for Louisville, Ky., to visit friends.

The condition of Captain James F. Webster continues to improve.

Mr. J. T. Cook and Miss Maggie M. Myers were married last night by Rev. F. T. Benson.

Mr. C. C. Bradley, formerly of Alexandria, but now of Fauquier county, is in the city on business. He is looking hale and hearty.

Senator Hutton returned to Washington from Warrenton yesterday, having recovered from his attack of rheumatism.

Bishop Whittle, not Bishop Randolph, will hold confirmation services in this city on Sunday next.

FIRE.—A fire was discovered shortly before nine o'clock this morning in the rear building of Mr. J. F. Muir's furniture warehouse on King street, near St. Asaph. The fire evidently originated from a stove in the room. The department responded to the call, and in a short time it had the fire under control. The damage was comparatively slight, and is covered by insurance, there being a policy of $300 on the building and $500 on the contents, which consisted of material, mattresses and some furniture. The building is the one which many years ago was used by the old Brooke Lodge of Masons. The two small brick houses adjoining on the north were slightly damaged while the fire was raging.

THE RILEYS TO-NIGHT.—The Rileys one of the best repertory dramatic companies of the country, gave one of their many plays, entitled "The Hoop of Gold," last night, which was rendered in a most pleasing and satisfactory manner. This is one of the finest repertory companies that has ever appeared in the city, and deserves the patronage of the citizens. To-night they will render the great military play, "The French Spy, or the Fall of Algiers." The entertainment last night was well attended and the play well presented.

A. L. I.—The weekly drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry last night was well attended, 50 men being in line. In the absence of the commanding officer Sergeant Marbury took command and marched the company through some of the streets, stopping at the postoffice corner where the men were put through the manual. The men showed great proficiency in the drills and are taking much interest in their proposed trip to Fredericksburg next month.

THE PHILLIPS CASE.—The third trial of Jeff. Phillips for the killing of G. S. Smith in this city on July 22, 1891, is set for to-morrow in the Corporation Court. Mr. J. C. Creighton, the acting City Sergeant, went to Loudoun on Sunday and yesterday summoned a venire of 24 men who will reach this city to-morrow morning. It is not believed that the case will occupy as much time as did the former trials.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—Mary A. Corsa qualified as administratrix of E. S. Corsa, deceased.

Jas. Duncan vs. J. H. Wilkinson's administrator, decree of reference.

A man and his wife jumped from an incoming local train yesterday evening near Colross to save the trouble of walking from the depot back to their homes. Both were thrown to the ground and quite badly bruised.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City Council meets to-night.

During the fire this morning travel on the electric railway was interrupted on King street by reason of the hose being laid across the tracks.

Mr. Edgar Soy was struck on the head by a brick which fell from the house which was damaged by fire this morning and was quite badly hurt.

The bill permitting pool-selling and bookmaking on horse races in the District of Columbia was defeated in the House of Representatives yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Fadget took place from her late home on King street, near Washington, this evening. The interment was in the Union Cemetery.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Jefferson D. Jones, of Leesville, and Eliza Crimer of Laney, and to William Laws and Belle Warner, both of this city.

The sparring exhibitions at Henry's Theatre last night were well attended, but were not as exciting as some that have been held there. Some of those who were expected to spar failed to put in an appearance. The audience was composed mostly of Washingtonians.

Judge Norton has granted an amendment to the charter of the Standard Phosphate, Mining and Chemical Company, changing the name to the Standard Phosphate and Mining Company. Its capital stock is also increased to $200,000. Mr. Park Agnew is president of the company and Mr. M. B. Harlow secretary.

Mr. J. H. Greene went to Leesburg this evening with a petition to Judge Keith asking him to grant a writ of error and supersedeas in the cases of Robinson and White, colored, sentenced to be hanged at Manassas on Friday for criminal assault on two white women. Should Judge Keith refuse the petition, Mr. Greene will take the case to the Court of Appeals.

RESIGNATION OF REV. DR. DAME.—Rev. Dr. George W. Dame has tendered his resignation as rector of Camden parish, Danville, a position he has held for fifty-four years. In March he tendered his resignation as rector of the Church of the Epiphany, of that city, retaining the rectoryship of the remainder of the parish, but he finds that increasing feebleness will prevent his performance of any of the duties, and so his letter of resignation was read yesterday.

THE Y. M. S. L. MINSTRELS.—The entertainment to be given at the Lyceum on May 1st, will no doubt be a success. Mr. James Cathell, of Washington, will be one of the performers. The services of Master William Patengory, the boy soprano, of Washington, have also been engaged. The orchestra of ten pieces will be under the direction of Prof. Edward Dunn.
